

Description

Ströer©Tobias Schott

Public Video Infoscreen are digital large-screen displays on subway and suburban train platforms as well as long-distance train stations in major German cities. They achieve a special attention in the stimulus-poor public space: your target group is grateful for the variety provided by your advertising in the average 5-minute waiting situation and can also perceive comprehensive messages.

Operating hours: Monday to Sunday, 6:00 to 22:00/23:00/24:00 o'clock (depending on city)

Possible ad duration between 5 seconds and 30 seconds

Notes

In Munich, QR codes are not allowed on advertising materials!
